Action by

4.01 Eddy has spoken with Charlie Haynes (parish council) he informed Eddy that the forms have now been submitted for the application of the money. CH will keep Eddy informed of any offer put forward.

4.02 Sports man dinner.

140 tickets sold, potentially another 50 left.

4.03 Trevor Siefers has two tickets for Arsenal V Burnley 6/3/10 which will be sold at the sportsman's dinner with all the proceeds going to club house fund, he also had a framed picture of Chelsea which will also be sold on the evening.

4.04 Ladies night.

Kelly

Kelly's hairdresser Matthew Clulee has offered the use of his salon free of charge for a pamper evening.

Dates of 15th and 22nd April have been suggested.

Not sure what format the evening will take will talk to Matthew about this.

Points discussedAction by

- 4.05 Fun Run
Good response from managers. Chris explained the roots and suggested that we will need 22 Marshall on the day.

Kids to wear their kits on the day.

Mark Stansfield has volunteered to do BBQ.

Chris Jones and Eddy Aldworth to do the food run to Bookers the day before cash and carry card from J Page.

Collecting money from those sponsoring the runners - use collection boxes given to each child.
- 4.06 Quiz Night:
Kelly and Eddy have visited St Anthony of Padua Church.
Space for 11/12 tables they have 110 chairs - 10/11 tables of 10.
Date 1st May arrive at 7pm for 7.30 start.
Karen Collins has the disc for the and will amend the wording for the quiz tickets.
EA will be quiz master.
Cost £12 includes food.
- 4.07 Under 9 Semi-Final tournament at Boults Lane the 6th March:
-10.30 start finish 1pm.
Help with barbecue and sweets/tea/coffee stall.

Football focus involving local schools a festival of training and coaching OFA to advise.
- 4.08 M Barrett raised possibility of something specifically for children ie disco or Halloween party. It was agreed not to organise this as a club house fund raising event at the moment as each coach arranged team get-to-gathers sometimes at Christmas often as part of the end of season presentation. '
- 4.09 Next Meeting Monday 15th March at 7.30pm.
